Remarks/Arguments:

The above Amendments and these Remarks are in reply to the Office Action mailed December 11, 2007 and to the telephone interview on January 24, 2008.

Claims 1, 5, 28 and 51 are objected to because of informalities, which have been amended as suggested.

Claims 1, 5, 28 and 51 are amended as suggested by the examiner.

Claims 1, 5, 6, 15-19, 40-42 and 63-65 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

Claims 1, 5, 6, 15-19, 40-42 and 63-65 have been amended to remove the terms "XML" and "SOAP". The term "XML" has been converted to the generic phrase "markup language" and the term "SOAP" has been converted to the generic phrase "first protocol".

Claims 1, 5, 6, 15, 24, 28, 29, 38, 47, 51, 52, 61 and 52 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Richards et al. (U.S. Publication No. 2002/0147850) in view of Jaworski and Glass.

The independent claims have been amended to include the feature that "the runtime environment program sends simplified messages to the server; wherein the server converts the simplified messages into messages of a first protocol messages for the web service and converts messages of the first protocol from the web service into simplified messages for the mobile device; wherein the protocol of the simplified messages is less complex than the first protocol; and wherein each simplified message consists of a title and a single block of data in a markup language format".

This feature is not shown or made obvious by the cited prior art.

In light of the above, it is respectfully submitted that all of the claims now pending in the subject patent application should be allowable. The Examiner is respectfully requested to telephone the undersigned if she can assist in any way in expediting issuance of a patent.

The Commissioner is authorized to charge any underpayment or credit any overpayment to Deposit Account No. 06-1325 for any matter in connection with this response, including any fee for extension of time, which may be required.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: January 29, 2008
